Armands Onzuls

Specializing in Banking & Finance Law | Associate at COBALT
Riga, Latvia

Summary

My journey into law began when I noticed that justice was not equally accessible to everyone in various situations. Initially drawn to constitutional and human rights, my interest expanded, leading me to apply my legal knowledge in both public and private sectors. I have practiced law with municipalities, state-owned companies, and organizations in the banking and finance sectors. My expertise includes drafting new legislation, implementing legal frameworks, handling regulatory matters, and resolving disputes. Throughout my career, my goal has always been to balance diverse interests while striving for justice and logical solutions.

I greatly value the skills I've acquired over the years, especially my ability to calmly analyze situations and step back to see the bigger picture (or, as some might say, to see the forest for the trees). I also try to find solutions that go beyond traditional frameworks.
